未来，公司必将在创新中不断实现新跨越，以崭新姿态迎接发展契机，用心做好家用运动器材。

Suncao was founded on the concept of “exercise changes lives.” We are committed to manufacturing high quality, innovative exercise and sports products to help people achieve and maintain an active, healthy lifestyle.

Our factory has an onsite product development department supported by a team of engineers. Suncao holds several patents for exercise products that are highly sought after by consumers.

We utilize advanced technologies allowing for automation of many aspects of production resulting in higher efficiency and lean production.

Suncao is ISO9001: 2008 quality control system certified. We offer an onsite product testing quality control center. The combination of our testing center along with our quality control team members allows us to maintain the highest standards and tolerances, ensuring the production of premium products. Most Suncao products have obtained GS certifications, ROHS certifications and obtained EN957 test reports.

Seventeen years of fitness equipment development and manufacturing have allowed us to create an extensive network of marketing and distribution partners throughout the country. Suncao is a beloved, established brand in China as well as throughout the world and is sold in dozens of countries.

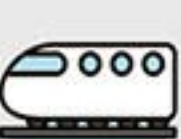

Moving into the future, Suncao will continue to create new products with a focus on home fitness equipment.
